

OHIO'S

ENERGY FUTURE TOUR

OHIO'S ENERGY FUTURE TOUR | DAYTON
CO-SPONSORED BY THE HANLEY SUSTAINABILITY INSTITUTE
AT THE UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON

Monday, March 16, 2015 | University of Dayton | Sears Recital Hall
Jesse Philips Humanities Center | Registration 5:30 | Forum: 6:00 – 8:00 pm

Welcome Message, Mayor Nan Whaley

Opening Remarks, John Seryak, Founder & CEO, Go Sustainable Energy, Moderator

The Business of Clean Energy: Creating jobs, reducing costs and driving innovation

- Michael Berning, Director, Business Development, Marketing & Sustainable Design, Heapy Engineering
- Stu Dalheim, Vice President, Shareholder Advocacy, Calvert Investments
- Greg Smith, President, Energy Optimizers
- Nadja Turek, Director, Sustainability Services, Woolpert, Inc.
- Mark Wiley, President, Kastle Solar

Audience Participation

Building a Sustainable Future: Energy as the catalyst for a robust and resilient region

- Robert Brecha, Professor, Research Director of the Hanley Sustainability Institute, University of Dayton
- Leanne Jablonski, FMI, Ph.D., Director, Marianist Environmental Education Center and University of Dayton
- Eileen Moran, MPA, RS, Unit Supervisor, Regional Air Pollution Control Agency
- Jackson Morris, Director, Eastern Energy, NRDC
- Leslie Perkins, Ph.D., Director, Energy Office, Air Force Research Laboratory
- Jerry Renfrow, CHFM, Director, Facilities & Environmental Services, Kettering Health Network – Grandview Medical Center

Audience Participation

Closing Remarks

Adjourn

To register for future forums, take the clean energy pledge, or sign up for Tour updates, please visit:

<http://www.ohioenergyfuturetour.com/>

Paving the way to a new energy vision